

Games Animals Play (When We're Not Looking)

By Bret Ridgway

Overview

Games Animals Play (When We're Not Looking) is the premier title in the Laugh and Learn Library, a collection of playful, curiosity-sparked children's books. What began as a whimsical thought about "crickets playing croquet" has evolved into a full-color cartoon adventure designed to entertain, inspire, and educate.

This book invites young readers into a secret world where animals engage in silly situations, dream big, and play familiar games. Using a combination of rhyming poems, AI-enhanced illustrations, and educational facts, it creates a joyful reading experience for children and the adults who love them.

Key Features

- Engaging Storytelling: Whimsical rhyming poems that make reading aloud fun for parents, grandparents, teachers, caregivers and more!
- Vibrant Visuals: Full-color, cartoon illustrations that bring the secret lives of animals to life.
- Educational Value: Beyond the rhymes, the book includes fascinating animal facts to spark curiosity and learning.
- Interactive Elements: Complemented by a suite of online resources including coloring pages, animal masks, and word searches.
